Set back behind a charming cottage-style front garden, enclosed by a low brick boundary topped with picket fencing and complemented by mature hedging, the approach offers both character and a sense of privacy. A neat lawn and established planting frame the pathway leading to the front door, creating a warm and welcoming first impression from the moment you arrive. A driveway leads to the garage, which benefits from storage above and includes an electric car charging point.

Stepping inside, a convenient porch leads to a welcoming reception/dining hall that creates a lovely first impression and forms the natural hub of the ground floor. There is ample space for a family dining table or occasional seating, making it a sociable point from which the rest of the home flows. The kitchen and breakfast room offers a well-appointed setting for everyday living, complete with a central island and generous storage including a walk-in pantry. A separate utility room provides practical space for laundry and additional appliances, keeping the kitchen clear for cooking and gathering.

The main living room is a generous and inviting space, centred around an impressive inglenook-style fireplace that brings warmth and character to the room. This leads through to a light-filled garden room, where large glazing and underfloor heating create a comfortable place to relax and enjoy views across the garden throughout the seasons. Together, these spaces offer excellent flow for both family time and entertaining.
